SAILING DOWN THE RIVER.

BY LESLEY LEE.

The wind blew freshly out of the West,
The loving wind of the Summer time,
It rippled the river's heaving breast,
And scattered the haze in the morning's prime.
The broken waves in the steamer's wake,
Trembled and kissed with a smile to sever;
We cared as little our union to break,
So slight it seemed when we sailed down the river!

Like flocks of sheep the little white towns,
Sunned themselves near the forests old,
And away, far away, the sunshine bound,
The brows of the hills with crowns of gold.
With their grey-white wings the river-craft
Hovered like spirits around us ever;
You taught me their names, and merrily laughed
When I called them wrong, as we sailed down the river!

But under the smiling and peaceful day,
Deep in the heart of its fairest hour,
Like the worm in the heart of the rose, there lay
The canker that blighted its brightest dower.
I think of it now with a touch of pain,
That our idlest words are concealed never;
That the sun is dimmed and never again,
Will shine as it shone when we sailed down the river!

Alas, for the beautiful days of Youth,
When Youth and Honor are universal,
When the play of Life is ever a truth,
And never a dull and dingy rehearsal!
E're the wind had blown from the West of Life,
Which scatters Hope's fairy vision forever:—
Would the summer wind had scattered the strife
I have sighed over—TWICE—since we sailed down the river!

RESURRECTION.

CLARA DOTY.

A few more circuits of the tardy sun—
Days passing into naught—
Then shall a great and marvelous deed be done,
A miracle be wrought.

All unbelieving hearts shall feel the spell;
All doubting hearts shall see;
Even now impatient worshippers foretell
The wonder that shall be.

Not that the lame shall walk; the light of day
In blind eyes freely shine;
The deaf ear hear; the dumb speak yea or nay;
Or water changed to wine;

Or palsied forms arise in one brief hour,
Whole, joyful from the bed;
But shall be shown God's everlasting power
In raising up the dead.

Lo, how the earth lies in a winding sheet!
Under the straightened fold,
Her features, once so passionate and sweet,
Are blank and mute and cold.

Her icy outline chills the very sigh',
Her torpor checks the breath—
So far unlike the blessed sleep of Night
Is this dread sleep of Death.

Yet forth from this enfolding white and chill,
Forth from this iron trance,
Her pulses starting with a living thrill,
Her vivid countenance

Brightened and beautified with glow and hue,
Transfigured to all eyes,
Restless with flooding strength, and clothed anew,
The sleeper will arise.

Then will the darkness and the mourning cease;
With liberated voice
Will Silence shout and sing the glad release,
And Time himself rejoice.

—University Magazine.

—Here is one that surely requires a place in the front rank:

Two well dressed boys did meet one day,
Each did the other eye;
Each to the other then did say—
"That 'Dress' where did you buy?"
Says Bill—"This 'Suit' I bought so low,
I'll gladly tell you where;
I purchased it of George Fenno,
At 22 Dock Square."
"Now, Bill," said Joe, "is not that queer—
What I now say is true;
This 'Suit' I purchased there last year,
This year I shall buy TWO."

Says a Hair Restorative man, up in New Hampshire:

In the world's sublimer calling,
Where we each our race must run,
If your hair be falling, falling,
Use the "Martha Washington."

Trust no other—howe'er pleasant—
None can do what this has done;
Try it—always keep it present—
Use the "Martha Washington."

Twenty thousand heads remind us
What a noble test it stood;
Millions more shall come behind us,
With their tresses all renewed."

The next is from a New Orleans paper:

"What is a Rebus?" I asked of Miss Mary,
As close by my side the fair maiden was seated;
I saw her eyes sink and her countenance vary,
As she said in reply—"'Tis a kiss, sir, repeated."

"Miss Mary is a sensible girl; just the kind that will make a fellow a good wife; and we trust that the happy possessor of so valuable a prize, in bestowing upon her the solid comforts of life, will not neglect to provide a Charter Oak Cooking Stove, the only really perfect stove in the market."

Here is a call from a country bachelor:

I want a wife—a first-rate wife—
A girl that's all my own,
To cook my meals and cheer my life,
With smiling word and tone.

A girl that ne'er will pledge a vow
To any chap but me;
That's been brought up to milk a cow,
And have warm cakes for tea.

She must be graceful as the bell
Upon the lily found,
And make such butter as will sell
For thirty cents a pound.

And how expressive is the next:

—Pass quickly, O Time! over blustering March,
When 'Boreas the Rude' holds his court;
And if you've the least bit of feeling for me,
Let sun-showery April be short.
I long the delights of the summer to taste,
And—I've a particular reason for haste.

I would it were possible I could arrange
So we might have June before May;
But as I can't do it, O Genius of Rest!
Please let me sleep one month away.
The reason I wish to have summer so soon
Is this—I'm engaged to be married in June.

Equally poetic in sentiment, if not in metre, is the following, from the card of a Dry Goods firm out West:

"But, not to pile up the agony of Western eloquence, we state with great confidence that ladies attired in our new styles of Fall and Winter goods, will find the effect so rejuvenating, that all the cares incident to domestic life will be as blithsome as kissing the dew from the roses of beauty that bloom in perennial fragrance in the elysian fields of estatic love!"

Matrimonial advertisements have their peculiarities. A down caster advertises his wife thus:

On the sixteenth of July, on the night of Monday,
Eloped from her husband, the wife of John Grundy;
His grief for her absence each day growing deeper,
should any one find her, he begs them to—keep her.

A New York husband says on the same subject:

"Whereas, the wife of Peter Smith has left his bed and board, the public are cautioned against trusting her, as he will pay no debts of her contracting. N. B. The best of garden seed sold by the said Peter Smith at the sign of the Golden Hammer."

DEAFNESS, CATARRH, CONSUMPTION, AND CANCER CURED.

A Treatice on Deafness, Catarrh, Consumption and Cancer; their causes, means of speedy relief, and ultimate cure. By a Pupil of the Academy of Medicine, Paris. Sent to any address for 10 cents.

Letter from Robt. McMurdy, D.D., L.L.D., Grand Prelate of Grand Encampment of U. S., and Editor of the "National Freemason."

NEW YORK, Sept. 17, 1867.—DR. STILWELL was in charge of Grace Church Hospital, Alexandria, Va., during the war. I frequently, almost daily, for months, visited this Hospital, and had every means of knowng his reputation for efficiency and skill. It was of the most creditable character, and his success in the treatment of his patients was remarkable. —ROBT. MCMURDY.

ORGANIC VIBRATOR.

It fits into the ear, is not perceptible, removes singing noises in the head, and enables deaf persons to hear distinctly at church and public assemblies. This instrument will often produce results almost miraculous, and indeed in most cases of long standing deafness, it will relieve in a short time. It may be adjusted with the ease of spectacles.

DR. STILWELL will be professionally at 31 East Washington Place, University Buildings N. Y., daily, 10 to 4. 204-1yr.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1868.

REPUBLICANS OF EASTERN WASHTENAW AND WESTERN WAYNE.

You have often been tried and while other parts of the county and State have failed, you have always done the full measure of your duty. There is before us and we say it, not because it is customary on the eve of a Presidential campaign, but with due solemnity, weighing well our words. There is before us stubborn work. We are entering on a campaign more pregnant in its results to the country, for weal or for woe than any other in the past. The question really is, whether the fruits of the war shall be realized, whether our country shall be saved or lost. Shall its future be based on the solid foundation of freedom, the only solid rock for a Republic? Shall we place men in office who fully realize the gravity of the grand issue, and will faithfully execute the laws? We have had enough of politician presidents, men who prefer to push a plan of their own rather than trust to the combined wisdom of Congress. Our congressmen are emphatically the people's representatives, and utter their clearly expressed will. They are the law-makers of the nation. It is the duty of the President to see that the laws are respected and obeyed. We propose to place such a man in the presidential chair. But whoever believes that all we have to do is to nominate our men and elect them on the ground of their inherant popularity, without putting forth a manly and vigorous effort is much mistaken. We have a wily and active opposition. An opposition that will spare no effort to accomplish their aims. They are untiring. Already organized and enrolling their cohorts for the conflict. They are threatening another civil war. Can we afford to place the government in the hands of a party, whose leaders hope to carry the election by brow-beating and threats, to imbrue their hands in the blood of their countrymen, stain our hearthstones with fraternal blood in case they are beaten? Such a party is dangerous to the peace of the country. Civil war with all its untold horrors is being nursed into life by the Democratic Press. The only method of averting it is for the people to arise in the majesty of their strength at the ballot box and so effectually squelch these would be disturbers of the public peace that they will never be heard of hereafter. Our very lives and liberties are in danger unless this thing is done. Organize then. Organize now. Don't delay a day. ORGANIZE in every school district and ward. Organization is victory.

Scatter widely the documents. None are more effective than the Home paper. To place the COMMERCIAL in the reach of all for the campaign and to enable the friends to circulate it gratuitously, we offer the COMMERCIAL to clubs or Republican Associations from May 1st to November 7th:

5 copies	$3 00
10 copies	5 00

Who shall say that we don't propose to do our full share?

DON'T BE ALARMED.

For fear that we may have alarmed some timid mothers in reference to the safety of their offspring last week, we deem it a duty to allay their anxiety. It is true our cotemporary says that he "is after scalps." But then he don't mean it. He is a warrior fashioned after his party. Our readers will remember how fierce the Democracy were for a fight prior to the late war. How zealously they promised the southern rebels to aid them in their rebellion against the government, urging them to fight, and how strikingly does the fact come home to memory, the faithlessness of their promises. Who will believe any of the class now when they talk about scalping. You can't make a southern rebel believe it. The ex-rebels have no more faith, if as much, in a Northern Democrat as in their former slaves. A negro stands higher in their estimation than a thousand such blattants as the editor of the Sentinel. So mothers rest in quietness. Your darling innocents are safe. It is true that if he should take to carrying out his threats, like the savage, his chief slaughter would be among the weak and unoffending. But he will not dare to even strike at them. The shadow of a ghost would excite mortal terror. And yet if scalping is the game, come on. There are two that can play at that game, and not tackle women and children either. The men who put down the rebellion, our brave soldier boys, are equal to the emergency. Some of them are already itching to turn their guns against this class, who, when the very life of the government was endangered, by pen and otherwise, rendered aid and comfort to traitors. Our cotemporary would be the first to fall. Tomahawk and scalping knife would vainly save him. Our advice to him would be—remember the scripture language. "He that taketh the sword, shall fall by the sword."

SOUTHERN ELECTIONS.

The elections South have gone gloriously. South Carolina, the leader in revolt, the prince of rebel States, has adopted the revised constitution, by nearly 50,000 majority. North Carolina by over 40,000. Louisiana goes up into the thousands. Georgia all right. We have great cause for congratulation. In spite of all the efforts of Johnson, reconstruction is proving a complete success. Both the Carolinas, Georgia, Arkansas, and Louisiana will surely give their votes to Grant. There is good reason to believe that Alabama, Florida, and Virginia will also come in so as to give a like vote. The constitutions adopted by the above States are decided improvements on the old, more in accordance with the times. Their bill of rights embrace the opening lines of the declaration of independence. They emphatically deny the right of any State under any circumstances to withdraw from the Union. Every male citizen of the United States of the age of 21 and who has resided in the State one year, except such as are disfranchised by Congress, are entitled to the ballot. The result of the Southern elections has proved that the reconstruction policy of Congress was just the policy the people of the South desired. Deliberately enacted into organic law, henceforth it is their policy. Equal rights won so gallantly can never be taken away. No reaction can ever go deep enough to disturb them. The future of our country looks bright. A happy future is in prospect.

IMPEACHMENT.

We were in hopes of giving our readers the result of the impeachment trial this week. We shall probably get the result by about Tuesday next. We are not very sanguine of conviction. There has been too much money raised to thwart it. The Republican who thus sells himself will have the pleasure of seeing his name published, enclosed by black lines. He makes himself worse than the traitor himself.

ABASYNIA.

The English have been successful in their invasion—taking the capital. In the assault King Theodore driven to an extremity, killed himself.

—Dispatches say that the Democrats in Washington held a caucus last Sunday. Doubtless the only symptoms of religion in that Sabbath gathering were many mourners on the anxious seat.

—Prominent Johnson men assert that, as soon as Johnson is removed he will make a stumping tour through the North. As General Butler remarked to poor Thomas, after broiling him on the gridiron of a cross-examination, we shall always be happy to see him.

The Decker & Company Pianos have always received the First Premium whenever and wherever they have competed with the most celebrated makers in this country.

THE

IVORY AGRAFFE BAR!

Is an invention beautiful in its simplicity, and wonderful in its practical effect. It is the most compact Agraffe ever invented, and its influence upon the tone is to render it mellower, rounder, and more clearly brilliant, while it utterly overcomes that sharp, metalic quality which disfigures the instruments of all other makers.

The unanimous opinion of the best artists and the most reliable critics is, that

The Decker & Companies Ivory Agraffe Bar Piano-Forte, which is voluminous sonorious, and positive solidity of tone, can stand comparison with the best Grand Piano-Fortes made.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhœa, induced by Self-Abuse; Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, etc.—By Robert J. Culverwell, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," etc.

The world-renowned Author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves, from his own experience, that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials—pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent, under seal, to any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, or tainted Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities; it expels disease and restores health and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottle, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative ingredient whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the class of diseases it is intended to cure. We can assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other medicine for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. Agents wanted. April & May

M., in liber 34 of mortgages, on page 325, and assigned by said Goodrich to Asa Rice, on the 29th day of April 1867, and assignment recorded in said Register's office for Washtenaw county, May 7th, 1867, at 12 o'clock M., in Liber 1 of assignment of mortgages, on page 374, by which default the power of sale contained in said mortgage became operative, and no suit or proceeding at law or in Chancery having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, and the sum of one hundred and sixty-nine and twenty-nine one hundredths dollars, principal and interest, being now claimed to be due on said mortgage, and an attorneys fee of twenty-five dollars, as stipulated therein

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of a power of sale containe in said mortgage, and the statute in such case provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described therein, to-wit: That parcel of land described as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner of a piece of land deeded to James Norris by Joseph Peck and wife, running thence north along the west bounds of River street, city of Ypsilanti, Michigan, four rods; thence west ten rods; thence south four rods; thence east ten rods to the place of beginning, and now occupied by said McCoy, at public auction, at the south door of the Washtenaw county Court House, in the city of Ann Arbor, (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for said county) on Monday, the 29th day of June, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Dated Ypsilanti, April 3, 1868.

WILLIAM H. RICE,
Executor of Asa Rice, assignee of mortgage, deceased.

D. B. GREENE, Attorney.

Report.

Our paper is filled up with the City Clerk's report this week, shutting out local matters.

The Ypsilanti Ladies Library Association

Will hold their second Public Social in the Arcade building, opposite the Post Office, on Saturday evening, May 2d. Admission, 10 cents.

Trusting to the interest which we hope the community will feel in sustaining this Library Association which is organized and conducted solely for their benefit, we have invested all our money in books which we hope to receive in time for distribution next Saturday. The avails of the Social are for current expenses, and aside from the value of money, which all appreciate, the approval of our friends as shown by their personals presence, will be gratefully appreciated by the Board of Managers, and all ladies interested in the success of the Association.

Stevenson's Atheneum

Will be in town next Monday evening, at Hewitt Hall.

Mr. J. Dwelle

Proposes next Saturday, May 9th, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to sell his house and lot a few rods South of Congress street, conveniently located for business, in every way a desirable residence. A large brick house and plenty of room. Adapted for private residence or boarding house. We call the especial attention of those wishing to purchase.

Next Week

A correct list of revenue returns will be published. Mr. E. Yost has handed us such a list. The one we published last week was taken from a Detroit paper, and is very imperfect.

J. W. Johnson & Co.

We are happy to inform the public that the above firm have opened a first-class Dry Goods Store, in Newell Block, next door to Stebbins & Durand, at the depot. It is designed to to be the leading store in town. The advertisement next week will demonstrate the fact.

Removal.

We are sorry to announce to the public that E. D. Lay & Co., are about leaving our city for Detroit. Denison Lay, Jr., has purchased the store of E. Wallace & Co Detroit, first class store and everything in fine taste. We regret to lose our friends, but our loss will be the gain of our superior rival. Mr. Dimick also goes to Detroit. Having done business in our city over 20 years he will be much missed. Great is Capilary, and Capilary induces these parties to seek a larger field. Success to them.

Lectures to Ladies.

Mrs. Walter C. Lyman, the eloquent lecturer on, and teacher of Physiology, Anatomy and Hygiene, visits our city next week for the purpose of organizing classes. She has met with the most flattering success in Detroit, where she has just concluded her fourth series of lectures to large classes of ladies. Her lectures are illustrated by an extensive physiological apparatus, consisting of a French Manikin and accompanying models, a human skeleton, and a large collection of illustrative oil paintings and charts. She is considered by the ladies, wherever she has taught, to be the best lecturer on these subjects in the field, and it is unnecessary for us to add anything to impress the importance of her mission to women. Mrs. Lyman will give a free introductory lecture to the ladies Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church.

Spiritual Convention.

A Spiritual Convention will be held at Follett Hall, Saturday and Sunday next, the 9th and 10th of May.

County Sunday-School Institute.

The next meeting of the Washtenaw County Sunday-School Association will be held as an Institute, at Chelsea, in the M. E. Church, commencing at 10½ o'clock A. M., on the 12th day of May, 1868.

E. OLNY, Secretary.

Stevenson's Atheneum

Will be in town next Monday evening, at Hewitt Hall.

A Rare Chance

A fine residence in a healthy, eligible and commanding part of the city FOR SALE. A good barn, fruit, well, cistern, first cellar, and one of the most convenient houses in the city. Also seven acres of land, east side of the city, within the corporation, equally divided by a fence. I will sell half or the whole at a fair price. A grand chance for speculation. Apply at the COMMERCIAL office. 215—tf.

COE'S COUGH BALSAM, the great popular Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and Consumption. In connection with the ordinary 4 oz. size, Coe's Cough Balsam is now put up in MAMMOTH FAMILY BOTTLES, giving twice the amount of medicine given by any others for $1. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicines. No family should be over night without it in the house. 217–1y

Radical Restoration.—Its good effects are permanent. It not only restores the color of the hair, but the quantity and natural glossiness. This is said by every one using Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, [in one bottle.] Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. 217–2w

—COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE will immediately relieve and permanently cure the most aggrayated case of Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Sour Stomach, Constipation, and all diseases of the stomach and bowels. Physicians, clergymen, and all who use it, join in unbounded praise of its great virtues. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Price $1. 217–1y

Stevenson's Atheneum

Will be in town next Monday evening, at Hewit Hall.

AWAY WITH WIGS.—There are few persons living who would consent, for a given sum, to part with their hair and forever wear a wig. Use "Barrett's Hair Restorative"—a sure preventative to permature baldness.

CHIGNONS UNNECESSARY.—Wherever "Barrett's Hair Restorative" is used, these appendages are becoming entirely extinct. Ladies try it, and be convinced.

ITS GOOD EFFECTS ARE PERMANENT.—In this it differs from all hair dyes. By its use luxuriant growth is guaranteed, natural color and gloss are restored. One trial will cause you to say this of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing (in one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

THE PASHA AND ALL HIS RETINUE.—Rev. Oliver Crane, Missionary at Adrianople, writes: "The machine works admirably There is no Sewing Machine but this in all Adrianople. We have had company after company to witness its magic operation, from the best classes in Adrianople; among them the Pasha and all his retinue. He bore away with him a specimen of his own sewing, and was delighted. It has many admirers. Some want to purchase—all stand amazed at its telegraphic speed.—[Letter to the Wilcox & Gibbs S. M. Co.

DIAMONDS IN BRAZIL. We have been gratified by a visit from H. M. Lane, Esq., the agent for Ayer's Pills, Sarsaparilla and Cherry Pectoral, in South America, who has just visited the mines with his medicines, and described to us the process of taking gems from the earth. A driver places his gang of slaves in a mud hole, where the gems are found, and pans out the earth in the water, like gold washers. The negroes are naked, to prevent their secreting the diamonds in their clothes. They are required to work facing their overseer, and forbidden to raise a hand to the face, lest they should swallow the jewels when found. Yet they do carry them away, by becoming so expert that they can snap them with their fingers from the pan to their mouth, without detection. Ayer's medicines are the talismans for their diseases, and it was not difficult to exchange, with the negroes, Ayer's Pills in about even weight, for the rough stones in which the brilliants are holden.—Boston Leader.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity are suffering from diseases of the blood, which may be easily cured by the use of Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor.

"Healthy and Happy" are two words which contain a word of meaning. Health may be secured by the use of J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor.

The Ocean Breezes are not surer harbingers of health than Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor for all diseases of the blood.

Everyone may know of what Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor is compounded, by writing to the proprietor. The best known roots and herbs are used, and combine pleasantness to the taste with sure results.

To make the world better you must make the people wiser. To learn how to purify the blood is the first step towards wisdom. Use Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor for all diseases of the blood.

Cyrus W. Field laid the Atlantic cable, and insured the success of the great enterprise. Dr. J. W. Poland's Humor Doctor lays the foundation for health and strength by purifying the blood.

Red Jacket Axe

Colborn's Patent.—July 9, 1868.

Tried and NOT Found Wanting

We claim it will cut twenty-five (25) per cent. more cord wood per day than any other Axe made.

SIRS—I have fully tried your patent Axe and find that it is all that you claim for it. It will chop faster than any other Axe that I ever saw, and leaves the wood without sticking at all. I would not chop three days without one for the cost. I need not say any more, for any man that tries one will be satisfied. WM KEES.

McKEESPORT, Dec. 19, 1867.

CAUTION.—The Axe and the label are both patented. Infringers on these patents will be prosecuted according to law. Venders or dealers, and persons using any infringement, are liable with the maker of the infringement.

For sale by all Dealers and the Manufacturers. Lippincott and Bakewell, (successors to Lippincott & Co.,) sole owners of patents, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Olive Tar.

For a Cure of all Throat and Lung Diseases

Is a thin, transparent, oily fluid, extracted by chemical processes from purified juices of the Olive and Pine. The magnetic or concentrated curative power existing in Stafford's Olive Tar renders it an instantaneous and efficient Specific for

BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, AND ALL FORMS OF CONSUMPTION, WHEN IT IS TAKEN, APPLIED, OR INHALED.

RHEUMATIC and NEURALGIC, or any other EXTERNAL PAINS cease when OLIVE TAR is applied.

The astonishing success which has attended the use of Olive Tar, when its healing qualities are brought in contact with the Throat and Bronchial Tubes, and all the air cells of the Lungs, unquestionably proves it to be a Specific for all Pulmonary Diseases.

Below are a few of the many distinguished gentlemen who use and recommend the Olive Tar:

THE CURATIVE BALSAM is Warranted, if used according to Directions, to cure or relieve in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

Madame ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is a purely Vegetable Expectorant, prepared with great care and scientific skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords.

Its remedial qualities. are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the Blood through the Lungs

It enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform the duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body.

It loosens the phlegm, induces free spitting, and will be found VERY AGREEABLE TO THE TASTE. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching and effective; and can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

If you have a Cold, if ever so slight, do not fail to give the Balsam a trial, as the very low price at which it is sold brings it within the reach of every one, that they may always keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a 25 cent bottle will often prove it to be worth a hundred times its cost.

The 75 cent bottle is more profitable to the consumer, as it contains four times the quantity contained in the small bottle.

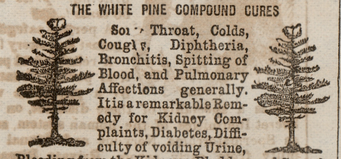
DR. J. W. POLAND'S

WHITE PINE COMPOUND.

THE WHITE PINE COMPOUND CURES



Sore Throat, Colds, Coughs, Diphtheria, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and Pulmonary Affections generally. It is a remarkable Remedy for Kidney Complaints, Diabetes, Difficulty of voiding Urine, Bleeding from the Kidneys, Bladder, and Gravel.

"It was early in the spring of 1855 that this Compound was originated. A member of my family was afflicted with an irritation of the throat, attended with a disagreeable cough. I had for some months previous thought that a preparation, having for its basis the inside bark of white pine, might be so compounded as to be very useful in the case of the throat and lungs. To test the value of it in the case alluded to, I compounded a small quantity of the medicine that I had been planning, and gave it in teaspoonful doses. The result was exceedingly gratifying. Within two days the irritation of the throat was removed, the cough subsided, and a speedy cure was effected. Soon after this I sent some to a lady in Londonderry, N. H., who had been suffering for some weeks from a bad cough, occasioned by a sudden cold, and had raised mucus streaked with blood. She soon found relief, and sent for more. She took about ten ounces of it, and got well. J. B. Clark, Esq., editor of the Manchester Daily Mirror, made a trial of the same preparation in the case of a severe cold, and was cured immediately. He was so highly pleased with the results, and so confident of success attending its sales if placed before the public, that he finally persuaded me to give it a name and send it abroad to benefit the suffering."

Testimonials.

A very large number of important testimonials have already been received from Physicians, Clergymen, Apothecaries, and, indeed, from all classes in society, speaking in the most flattering terms of the White Pine Compound.

Dr. NICHOLS, of Northfield, Vt., says:

"I find the White Pine Compound to be very efficacious not only in coughs and other pulmonic affections but also in affections of the kidneys, debility of the stomach, and other kindred organs."

Rev. J. K. CHASE, of Rumney, N. H., writes:

"I have for years regarded your White Pine Compound as an invaluable remedy. I can truly say that I regard it as even more efficacious and valuable than ever. I have just taken the Compound for a cold, and it works charmingly."

From JAMES J. HOYT.

BRADFORD, N. H., September, 1860.

DR. POLAND: In the Fall of 1857 I took a very violent cold, which brought on a very severe cough, pain in the side and lungs, and raising blood. I was also very badly afflicted with that troublesome disease—the Kidney Complaint. For the three years past I have been very much troubled with my throat and lungs, choking up and raising an immense sight, with a bad cough after raising blood. I felt that my time here must be short unless I soon got relief. This Spring, I was induced to try your White Pine Compound, though my faith in it was small. But to my astonishment, before I had taken two bottles my cough was better, the kidney trouble also, and I could rest nights without choking up and raising so much. I have taken nearly three bottles, and am feeling like a well man.

I would add that my father's family is inclined to consumption, my father, mother, and two sisters having died of it.

*The White Pine Compound, advertised at length in our columns, is not only as to its name inviting, but is a highly approved medicine. Dr. J. W. Poland, the inventor, has the confidence of the many who know him, a confidence which he enjoyed while laboring usefully many years as a Baptist minister. His experience as a sufferer led him to make experiments which issued in his medical discovery.—*Boston Watchman and Reflector.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.—Dr. Poland's White Pine Compound, advertised in our columns, is a successful attempt to combine and apply the medicinal virtues of the White Pine bark. It has been thoroughly tested by people in this city and vicinity, and the proprietor has testimonials to its value from persons well known to our citizens. We recommend its trial in all those cases of disease to which it is adapted. It is for sale by all our druggists.—New York Independent.

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

Has stood the test of seven years trial by the public; and no preparation for the hair yet discovered will produce the same beneficial results. It is a new scientific discovery, combining the most powerful and restorative agents in the VEGETABLE KINGDOM. It restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors, and falling out of the hair; and will make it grow upon bald heads, except in very aged persons, as it furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft, and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a HAIR DRESSING. It is the cheapest preparation ever offered to the public, as one bottle will accomplish more and last longer than three bottles of any other preparation.

It is recommended and used by the First Medical Authority.

The wonderful results produced by our Sicilian Hair Renewer have induced many to manufacture preparations for the Hair, under various names; and in order to induce the trade and the public to purchase their compounds, they have resorted to falsehoods, by claiming they were former partners, or had some connection with our Mr. Hall, and their preparation was similar to ours. Do not be deceived by them! Purchase the original; it has never been equalled. Our Treatise on the Hair, with certificates, sent free by mail. See that each bottle has our private Revenue Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.

TRADE MARK

Great United States Tea Warehouse

OF

T. Y. KELLEY & CO,

30 VESEY STREET, N. Y.

Are now supplying families throughout the United States with Teas, through the system of clubs and their regular appointed agents, at a slight advance on cargo prices, and guaranteeing their Teas to be pure and fresh, and also to give entire satisfaction, or they con be returned and the money refunded.

The advantage of buying Teas from our Warehouse is: you save the various profits of Speculators, Brokers, Wholesale Tea Merchants, Jobbers, Wholesale Grocers and Retailers, which in the aggregate, amount to from 50 cents to $1.00 per pound, and also are sure of getting the same quality and standard every time.

Our standard goods all bear our Trade Mark on the bags, and no others are genuine. Parties will please bear this mind, as our great success has induced some unprincipled parties in New Yook, Boston, and other places to imitate our style of putting up good sa snear as they dare to—to entrap the unwary,

PRICE LIST.

GUNPOWDER, $1.25, $1.50 per lb.

We are Sole Importers of the famous

Shantung Moyune Young Hyson and Kiangsi Oolong Teas.

These Teas take their name from the districts in which they are grown, and being the finest productions of China, are used almost exclusively by the Imperial Court and High State Officers. They are put up in the unique and beautiful style of the Chinese in one pound packages, and we will sell them in the original packages at cargo prices; the Hyson at $1.60; the Oolong at $1.30. We imported the first invoice that has reached this country and have effected arrangements through out agents in China to receive them regular hereafter.

FANCY BRANDS.

Having had many calls from our trade for a fancy brand of Oolong and Young Hyson Teas, we have been induced to put up in one pound sealed packages a fancy flavored NING YONG OOLONG and NANKIN MOYUNE YOUNG HYSON, which we are offering at $1.25 per pound for Oolong and $1.50 for Young Hyson. The only advantage these Teas possess over our regular styles is the fancy flavor.

A NOVELTY IN TEAS.

Teas sixty days from Japan.

We are now receiving Uncolored Japan Teas by way of Pacific Mail Steam Ship Co.'s new route, direct from Yokakoma via San Francisco. Put up for us in Japan in one pound papers. The usual time allowed for a cargo of Teas from Japan is one year and a half, but American enterprise has enabled us to offer to our customers, Japan Teas as fresh as the natives themselves can procure them. Owing to the heavy freights, we are obliged to charge $1.40 per pound.

GROUND COFFEES.

PURE RIO, 20, 25 and 30 cents per pound.

BEST OLD GOVERNMENT JAVA, 40 cents per pound.

ROYAL CLUB—Extra fine—35 cents.

In order to meet the demands of the people of Ypsilanti and vicinity we have appointed Smith Bros. agents for the sale of our Teas and Coffees. All goods are put up by ourselves in one pound packages at our Warehouse in New York and retailed at Ypsilanti by Smith Bros. at a small advance of 5 cents a pound over our New York prices. This brings our goods at the prices they can be purchased over our counters, with the freight added. We solicit a fair and thorough trial. 104-6m.

Phillips on Crete.

At the close of the Cretan Fair in Boston last week, Wendell Phillips delivered a short address, from which we take the following extracts:

"Dr. Howe has told us since his return from the shores of Crete of that act, hardly equaled by any of the deeds in the classic age, of the starving men, fathers and husbands, who took the bread you sent them and carried it on their shoulders to the mountains, and their starving lips never tasted one single kernel as they laid it down at the feet of the women and children to whom you sent it. Sparta cannot parallel, certainly cannot outdo, that heroism. The Roman girl crying out to her coward husband, "Poetus, it is not hard to die;"—Bozzaris's last words, "To die for Liberty is a pleasure;"—the negro wife of St. Domingo plunging the dagger into her own bosom and giving courage to her husband with the words, "Dear, when Liberty is gone what is life?"—the Cretan mother's tears because her babe died out of Crete, and the slave mother's joy because she buried her's in Canada, "free land,"—all these are outbursts of the same heroism.

But I will not detain you even in giving expression to the enthusiasm which brings you here to-night. Some men deny our right to sympathize, but certainly we have a right to give bread to a wife and child. I remember some nine years ago when we met under another roof in this city to ask a Boston audience for bread for the wife and children of John Brown, one timid speaker absented himself from the platform, because, he said, he would not join in the advocacy of a cause that had two sides. Gov. Andrew, with brave and ready epigram, answered the letter by one single sentence. He said: "I did not think the question whether the wife and children of John Brown should have bread, admitted of two sides." (Applause.)

So, to-night, let diplomatists dispute about international law, let the Secretary of State put his veto on the action of the government, we know that whether we are permitted to send swords to the soldiers or not, there can be no dispute that we have the right to send bread to the children. For myself, I admit no such distinction. I shrink from no such responsibility. I know there was a Byron who died at Cressy, and another who died at Agincourt, and their names are enrolled on the banners of the fatherland, and preserved in the ballads of the age; but for me, if I had my choice, tenfold would I be the descendant of the Byron who sent swords to Missolonghi and bread to the children of those that died there. (Applause.)

You remember, all of you, the touching story of that Swiss patriot, Arnold Winkelreid, who gathered a sheaf of spears into his own bosom. As he went forward into the heart of the Austrian army to give his life for his country, he looked back to the ranks of soldiers and said: "I go to make you a path; comrades, remember my wife and child." When Garibaldi called, the Italians asked him what he wanted of them. The bugle note of the revolting chief answered,—"I welcome you to toil, to want, to wounds and to exile, to death. Are you ready to follow me?" So to-day Crete says to her men, I welcome you to toil and to want, to exile and to death; I welcome you to the scaffold and to the battle field; and the men of Crete answer with their swords. But as they go up to make a pathway for Christianity and civilization, standing on the outpost of the European world, Crete turns for assistance to you the last born, and yet the leaders of the nineteenth century, and says, "Sons of self-government, I will open you a path for the cross of Democracy, but, dear comrades, remember my wife and my child." (Applause.) What shall the answer be men of Boston, to the call, "Dear comrades, remember my wife and child?" Well, I say the answer shall be, bread and shelter. The answer shall be from you and your comrades an appeal to the government that they will not let the banner, which half a million of patriot men, within the last five years, have made the representative of justice and liberty, steal along the waters of Crete without a welcome for one single exiled inhabitant; but that they will make the deck of an American frigate a refuge and shelter for the women and children of that persecuted isle. We will leave this hall only to go out and roll up a public opinion which will put Washington behind the army of Crete. America will at least give heed to the wives and children on that struggling island, and then having sheltered the non-combatants, having fed and clothed, as becomes Christian civilization, the wife and child, let us give even a higher meaning to the lines of Longfellow and say: "Soldier of Crete, fight and fear not."

"Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee;
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee, are all with thee."

I will not detain you by any longer appeal; Crete herself has made the best. She did not send to us in Massachusetts; we did not hear of her first from the lips of petitioners, we did not know of her struggle by the begging accents of her sons. No, we heard first of Crete in the thunder of her cannon, and the terror of Europe. Europe is aghast at this last rising of the people to claim their rights. Crete did not come and place herself by our side as a petitioner for aid; she leaped into the arena of nations armed from head to foot. It was only when we saw France and England deserted her, when we saw diplomacy attempt to smother the struggle for democracy that America answered from the voice of every lover of his own idea, it is another race contending for what our flag represents, and we stretch our hand half round the globe, and clasp it with the warriors of Crete, that represent the cross. Not in pity extending it, but in great honor, in profound gratitude, thankful for the opportunity of continuing still our great battle for the right. (Applause.)

—At the Dickens' banquet in New York, George William Curtis, of Harper's Weekly, responded to the toast of "The Weekly Press," as follows:

As I now look around upon this cheerful company, I like to think that this pleasant feast is not merely a tribute to an author whose books have made all his readers his friends, but is a fraternal greeting of welcome and farewell from us, who are all, in various ways, reporters, to our comrade, a late reporter of the London Morning Chronicle, who shall here and now, and at no other time, and nowhere else in the world, be nameless. He has ceased, indeed, to write for the Morning Chronicle, but he has not ceased to be a reporter. He is a famous story-teller; but I ask this table of experts whether that shows him to be no longer a reporter? (Laughter.) He is a great novelist, but what are novelists? They are men commissioned by nature to see human life and the infinite play of human character, and write reports upon them. So a certain Spaniard inspected the grotesque aspect of decaying chivalry, and wrote his famous report, "Don Quixote." (Applause.) So a certain Scotchman beheld the romantic splendor of the Crusader, and called his report "Ivanhoe." So a sad-eyed countryman of ours saw a tragic aspect in early New England life, and called his marvelous report the "Scarlet Letter." (Great applause.) And so our nameless friend of The Morning Chronicle, with the same commission as that of Cervantes, of Scott, of Hawthorn, observing the various aspects of life in his own time, has written his prodigious series of reports which have become household words all the year round. (Loud cheering.) They have not only revealed wrongs, but have greatly helped to right them. One he called, for instance, Nicholas Nickleby, and with hilarious indignation Dotheboys Hall was laughed and cried away. Perhaps he called another Oliver Twist, and the cold poor-house was turned inside out and warmed with the sun of human charity. Upon another I read Bleak House; and, as I turn the pages, the long, bitter winter of the law's delay lies exposed. He turns his eye backward, and it seems to me nobody truly understands the terrible form and spirit of the French Revolution, although he may have read all the historians, if he has not read that wonderful report, The Tale of Two Cities. (Applause.) And still, thank Heaven, the good work goes on. (Renewed applause.) The eye, and the heart, and the hand are untiring. The eager world reads, and reads, and reads; and the reporter's genial magic makes it a great, good-natured Oliver asking for more. (Cheers.) If in the pursuit of his calling, he came to us who loved and honored him, he still faithfully and frankly reported his observations. The old proverb says nobility obliges. But genius obliges still more. (Applause.)

Nashville—"The City of Rocks."
Quincy—"The Model City."
Hannibal—"The Bluff City."
Alexandria—"The Delta City."

—George Alfred Townsend, in the Cleveland Leader, talks thus about Senator Yates:

"A few weeks ago he went upon a long debauch of the lowest sort, leaving his family in despair. His State delegation compelled him to come to the impeachment trial under threat of procuring his expulsion. There he sits amongst his recollections, still drinking to keep alive. His complexion is saffron; the ligaments of his cheeks are seen through the skin; his hair is as dry as if its oils were burnt out with alcohol; his "lack-lustre, dead blue eyes" shows like melted glass. The papers from everywhere come to him with upbraidings. He cannot see nor reason sanely upon himself; but, sitting in the Senate, beguiles the time with reminiscences of that cyprian who, jealous of the rare prize of a Senator, sits yonder in the gallery now, looking upon him with a smile in her heart."

—Gen. Butler tells this good story of himself:

"While he was in command at New Orleans, a native Louisianian was observed one day by a wag reading a placard, 'Buy your shirts at Moody's.' The reader inquired what that meant. 'Oh,' said the joker, 'that is one of the edicts of Butler. It is the safest course to comply with the order, for Butler is a perfect despot you know.' So the Creole sought out Moody, and bought a quarter dozen shirts. In due time, a Paris paper arrived at New Orleans, in which the facts were narrated, as proving that Butler was both tyrannical and mean, using his power to compel citizens to buy their shirts of one Moody, who was undoubtedly his partner!"

The American Cooking Stove In Court.

At an adjourned term of the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Northern District of New York, in the second circuit held at the City Hall, in the city of Albany, the 28th day of January, in the year of our Lord 1868.

PRESENT:

The Honorable Nathan K. Hall, Judge.

J. H. Shear & J. Packard, vs. G. B. Bull & J. M. Rockwell, } In Equity.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that a perpetual injunction be issued in this suit against the defendants, restraining them from further infringements of said Patent, No. 51,406, dated Dec. 5th, 1865, for improvements in cooking stoves, pursuant to and in accordance with the prayer of the Bill of Complaint.

Signed A. A. BOYCE, Clerk.

The above suit was instituted for infringement of the Patent securing the manner of fitting the ash pan in the hearth of the American Cooking Stove, and for the combination of the bailed ash pan. We have repeatedly cautioned the public against selling or using stoves with these improvements not manufactured by us. All persons now selling or using stoves with these improvements in violation of the above injunction, without license from us, will be liable to fine and imprisonment.
